"This program can be used by accountants, who will upload the monthly payment slip for each employee of the company. The employee can then log in to the application using their credentials and download the file in PDF format."